9. Brown County Fair Association – 2019 Brown County Fair Recap.

Brown County Fair Association President Steve Corrigan said he appreciated the Committee's time and provided an update on this year's Fair. He noted the Fairgrounds is also along the river, and, on a positive note, the high water of the river has not caused any substantial erosion at the Fairgrounds.

Corrigan talked about some of the upgrades to the Fairgrounds that the Fair Association paid for including some gravel on the driveway that connects the midway to the gravel loop on the east end and the addition of asphalt millings on the north road which eliminated the dust for the neighbors to the north. The millings were donated and the Fair Association did the majority of the work. Fans were also added to multiple barns and the commercial building to make those areas more comfortable for guests and spectators.

Highlights of the Fair included 80 individuals who live in assisted living facilities coming to the Fair as well as approximately 1450 people coming in on Library Day. They also had 14 people from the CP Center come to the Fair along with approximately 356 veterans for the Veterans Appreciation Day event. Corrigan also noted that the Fair Association donates to the Honor Flight program.

The fair was attended by 37,500 guests which is down about 4500 from the previous year. Expenses were $449,500 but the revenue was good and they ended up with a modest gain.

For the 2020 Fair they will be upgrading their website at a cost of about $10,000 but it will be a much better website and they will end up saving marketing dollars. Corrigan also talked about plans to build a permanent announcer stand by the horse arena and they are working with a private donor for part of that. He also talked about the grass area just west of the riding arena and up to the blacktop east of the barns that does not drain well. That area will be excavated and graveled which will be better for bleacher seating as well as a better area for handicap parking. They also bored an underground waterline from the north horse barn to the north end of the riding arena after the Fair and Corrigan noted that Holtger Brothers donated the boring.

Corrigan concluded by thanking the County for their support and help over the years and then answered several questions of the Committee. Van Dyck noted that although the Fair only lasts five days, there is a lot of effort that goes in before and after and the work of the Fair Association goes well above volunteering.

Van Dyck also mentioned the bathroom project and said something should be coming forward on that in January. He also recalled the masterplan that was done previously on the Fairgrounds and said the working group is chipping away at that and working on the most immediate needs first. Up to this point, there is a pretty good plan developed for the restroom facility. Corrigan agreed that the footprint is very nice and it is coming along nicely.

Suennen referenced the rodeo and asked if there is enough seating available. Corrigan responded that the rodeo is a tremendous draw but they can only put so many bleachers up due to the size of the arena. He estimated they are probably short a minimum of 1000 seats each night. Suennen noted that people come in early and save spots with blankets which leads to arguments and problems. Corrigan said this year they kept the bleachers closed until two hours before the rodeo to try to alleviate that. They run into the same situation on Wednesday night with the demo derby and Corrigan said the seat saving is hard to control and they are well aware of the issues and they continue to look for solutions to that.

Golf Course

10. Golf Course Superintendent's Report.

Golf Course Superintendent Scott Anthes referred to the financial figures contained in the agenda packet. He noted October rounds were down about 200 from 2018 and down about 1200 from 2017. Total rounds for the year were down considerably. Revenue was down about $90,000 from 2018 and down about $100,000 from 2017. Season passes were also down and cart numbers were down as well due to lack of rounds. Steakhouse numbers were pretty consistent with prior years. Anthes noted that 2019 was the wettest year on record and 2018 was the second wettest year on record.

Anthes continued by outlining his Superintendent's Report, a copy of which is attached. He said that if the golf course is closed one or two days a year because of the weather, that is typically considered a lot, but this year they were closed 12 days. With regard to maintenance, Anthes said everything has been done with the exception of leaves that did not get cleaned up because it was too wet to get into some areas to clean them up.

Anthes also informed the Safari Steakhouse has decided not to renew their lease as they want to get out of the restaurant business. They have been at the golf course for 15 years and their last day will be December 22. Bids are being taken for the space until December 31 and they sent out a spec flier to all restaurants, taverns and food trucks that are on file with the Health Department. There have been some inquiries and several showings. The bid specs are also posted on the Purchasing website. The Safari has done a good job while they were at the golf course and Anthes would like to get the space rented out as quickly as possible because it is difficult to provide food pricing for those interested in booking outings.

Anthes talked about the upcoming Trout Creek Stabilization project and informed the ground is still a little too soft to do this as there is no frost and any equipment would make a huge mess. They have been trying to get this project done for a while and Anthes noted the Oneida Nation is paying for it and they want to get it done as soon as possible.

Anthes concluded by saying the golf cart lease was up at the end of November and the bid will go out at the beginning of the year. There are typically several vendors that bid and Anthes will keep the Committee updated on this. There were not any changes to the specs or bid.

Supervisor Suennen asked if the revenue from Safari Steakhouse has been consistent and Anthes responded that it has been consistent at about $90,000 - $95,000 per year for the last 10 years. The lease is a consistent number, but the utilities fluctuate somewhat.

NEW Zoo and Adventure Park

11. Director's Report.

Zoo and Park Director Neil Anderson informed the recent Breakfast With Santa event went well and was attended by about 65 people. Anderson also informed they recently had two penguins hatch and he shared a photo, a copy of which is attached and he informed both penguins should be ready to be on exhibit soon and they will also be used in some programming in the Education Center. Anderson also informed they recently added four penguins from the Greensboro Science Center. These penguins are currently in quarantine and will be on exhibit soon and will bring the total number of penguins on exhibit to 18.

Anderson continued that the Zoo Society has approved funding of about $61,000 to start construction on the moose exhibit and whooping crane exhibit. They have also approved funding to finish off the hoof stock quarantine in the animal hospital for about $15,000.

The new Zoo Mobile which was donated by Broadway Automotive will be unveiled on Thursday. The wrap has been put on the vehicle and he provided photos of it, copies of which are attached. Anderson also noted that the Zoo is working with the Howard Suamico Historical Society to do a small replica of the Suamico train station at the Zoo. This will be a fall project next year. Anderson also noted the cougar has been moved to Albuquerque and they intend to do some work on the exhibit to modernize it and one of the things they are looking at possibly doing is bringing in a wolverine from Sweden or Finland. Anderson concluded by talking about Nigel, the new giraffe and informed that he is doing well and seems to be relaxed and settled in.

12. Expo Hall Update.

Director of Administration Chad Weininger updated the Committee on the story wall of the Expo Center. He recalled the Committee wanted 3 digital touch screen TVs with a sound bar under each. John Maino and Jeff Flynt are working on the content for the TVs and Weininger noted that one TV will focus on conflicts and wars, one will be storytelling and one will be specific to Brown County. Weininger talked about the area where the marble was being proposed on the story board and said that there has been talk about using a ceramic type tile instead and he shared a sample with the Committee. Alternatively, Weininger said we could go with a large wall graphic wrap that could be changed out every couple years. This would allow the area around the TVs to be kept new and fresh and he provided a handout of some examples, a copy of which is attached. The graphics would be relatively inexpensive, around $2,000 - $2,500 to do an entire wall graphic. The graphic would allow different sayings and different pictures throughout the years rather than having a more static display. The TVs would be recessed so the wrap would cover the whole wall and Weininger noted it would be a little more cost effective. He also noted the TVs allow for flexibility in that the programming on those can be changed as well.

Supervisor Ballard asked if we went with the graphics, if we could look for sponsors for them. Weininger said that could be done and they could find a different sponsor every time the graphics are changed, but he also noted that there would be enough revenue generated by the venue to cover the cost as well. Supervisor Suennen asked about the five seals of the branches of service and asked if those would be included on the graphic instead of having them permanently on the wall. Weininger said the seals can be put anywhere on the graphic and can be included each time the graphic is changed out.

Ballard asked how long the tile Weininger had would last. Weininger said there would be a warranty on it and it appears to be pretty durable. Van Dyck understands the marble is expensive and therefore he does not have a problem with using the tiles instead. He indicated that if the tiles are used, banners could still be hung on either side of the TVs. He said the intention was to have a lot of interactive stuff and the TVs provide that. If we went with the changeable wall graphics, decisions would have to be made as to when to change them, what the design will be, etc. and sometimes those things become an issue and backfire.

Suennen likes the idea of the tile instead of the marble for cost reasons and he likes the idea of the interactive TVs, but he would really like to see the seals of the five branches of service be a permanent part of the display. Ballard feels the tile looks classy and classic, and as long as it lasts 10 – 15 years, he is in favor of it. Weininger noted that he will follow up on the longevity of the tile and let the Committee know what he finds out.

Weininger continued that there will be a discussion regarding naming rights on the Board floor at the next meeting. He noted that there is the main naming rights plus the hall, plaza, reflection space and the meeting space and they will go more into that at the Board meeting. He concluded by saying that the building is coming along nicely and Miron can do a walkthrough so if there is interest the Committee can let Weininger know. He noted that it is a pretty massive structure and should be really nice.

Van Dyck would like a report at a future meeting as to where the financing ended up and what rate we got and what the terms are. Weininger will have the information available at the next meeting and further explained that CDA Ashwaubenon actually owns the land and building and they bonded for it. The County is on the hook because we have a lease agreement with them and the lease payments are coming from the room tax and if we are short the County would be on the hook and then we can come back at a later date and collect from the room tax.

13. Director's Report.

Assistant Park Director Matt Kriese reported on recent damage at Bay Shore Park from a combination of severe wind and record high water levels. He provided photos of the damage, a copy of which are attached. He noted the boat landing faces directly north so it was hit a little harder than most areas. The damage is to the parking lot and Kriese is confident it can be cleaned up and repaired for as low as $32,000. He noted the cost could be higher depending on materials, etc. The boat landing should be able to open in spring without a problem. They may have to cordon off an area until repairs are made, but opening in the spring should not be a problem. It is the intention for the County's Public Works Department to make the repairs.

Suennen asked if the the surface under the parking lot is still solid or if that needs to be reinforced or if the composition needs to be changed. Kriese responded that it is still solid, but there has been some erosion and he noted that there were four foot whitecaps in the parking lot during the storm. Staff has been cleaning up debris in the parking lot after almost every storm, but they are able to keep up with that and it is manageable. The base is in decent shape, but there are areas adjacent to the water that have eroded and they are filling in those areas. Supervisor Lefebvre noted that it has been estimated that Lake Michigan will be up anywhere from 6 – 14 inches next year.

Van Dyck asked where the money for the repairs will come from. Kriese responded that it depends upon what the financial estimate comes in at. There are a lot of unknowns right now, but when numbers are finalized he will be bringing a budget adjustment forward. There are a number of different avenues such as alternative funding sources, potential grants and potential donations and also the boat landing fund balance. It is the goal to not use any tax levy for this.

Kriese updated the Committee on several topics, including their new website which is greatly enhanced from the old website and the ski trails that are open at Barkhausen and Reforestation Camp but in poor condition. He also talked about the restroom design at the Fairgrounds and said he expects to bring the concept design back to this Committee in January for review.

Kriese concluded by talking about the gun deer season and said they were well within the guidelines of safe hunting numbers at the Reforestation Camp. They have had a decent number of bow hunters at Nashotah and there were some issues, but they are working to alleviate further issues by updating their signage and Kriese noted that much of the signage is bilingual and they have also created paths that lead directly to the signage. The issues are not new, they have been going on for a number of years but neighbors are pleased with the efforts being made by the Parks.

Lefebvre said she heard a complaint regarding barking dogs at Fonferek's Glen. Kriese said dogs are allowed at the park but he has not heard of any issues. The issues could be with neighbors who have dogs and he will mention this to staff.

Ballard mentioned the fall off in numbers from 2018 to 2019 at Pamperin Park. Kriese cautioned that when dealing with park attendance, they are dealing with educated estimates. They have infrared counters at Pamperin. Some of the difference in numbers could be weather related but he noted that staff seems comfortable with the number reported and they do not adjust numbers unless there is something significant that can substantiate the difference.

Library

14. Library Report/Director's Report.

Library Director Sarah Sugden and Financial Manager Linda Chosa addressed the Committee. Sugden provided a written report along with the Library Events brochure for December through February, copies of both are attached. Sugden was pleased to report that as of today the entrance at the East Branch is now fully accessible for people with disabilities or those with strollers or other needs. They are committed to making sure all facilities are accessible and really welcoming for all members of the community. She also reported that they are currently conducting interviews for the safety officer position which is a new position created this year to help ensure the facilities are safe and welcoming and comfortable for both visitors and staff. Sugden is grateful for help from the Sheriff's Department in the interview process and helping to ensure the Library makes the right choice.

Sugden continued that the time log project is complete and they will now begin the assessment and evaluation of data to see how staff is using their time throughout the days and weeks so they can be confident in how resources are being used. She understands with levy limits on the horizon they need to be very responsible and strategic with how they are spending their staff time and the allocation of the budget. She is confident they have the right team in place to examine the information and make data driven decisions moving forward.

Sugden concluded by talking about the Give A Kid A Book program and indicated that the distribution will begin tomorrow.

No action taken.

Museum

15. Museum Director's Report.

Library Director Beth Lemke informed the Museum parking lot was flooded during the same weather event Matt Kriese spoke about earlier. The majority of the parking lot was full of knee deep water. She noted that the Museum is in the flood plain and trying to re-engineer anything with regard to the parking lot would likely affect Museum Place. They do have cones and barricades and they do have a system in place for these events and they can move quickly to implement the system. Lemke expressed concern with the spring and noted that their parking lot is built on fill and they have already have had several sinkholes and there may need to be repairs made this spring. She also mentioned the rock wall along the river and noted it has deteriorated significantly since she has been here and at some point she will approach the City on this as that is City property.

Lemke continued that the Our Brown County graphic panels are now at the airport. There are three groupings of four panels in Concourse A, Concourse B and in the baggage claim area. They still have to go back and hang the photography wall. It was not easy getting everything through security and they had to move through the concourse escorted by airport staff, but as soon as the groupings were in place, people were looking at them. Lemke is happy all the work and stories are carrying on.

The Holiday Memories exhibit is now open and the focus is on downtown Green Bay, and she noted that they have acquired from Port Plaza Mall a teddy bear and some elves so they are not stopping the stories in the 1950s and 1960s; they are including things from the next generation as well and they are happy to have the new acquisitions.

With regard to the core gallery construction, Lemke informed the project is on schedule and Blue Water had been on site for 12 days straight getting all of the custom fixtures in place, anchored and lit. They will be back at least one more time in 2020 to do things like paint touch ups and other little things that need to be tweaked and adjusted. Lemke talked about the lights and said they are waiting for the fixtures to arrive and then the challenge will be that the Museum team will have to put the fixtures together before the lighting designer can come and hang them. She does not want Blue Water back until the gallery lights are up because they need the light to sign off on all the pieces. They will take every precaution they can to avoid scrapes and things like that while staff is getting the artifacts into place, but before they do the final sign off, they want the proper lighting in place. There is still a lot to do, but the project is coming along.

Lemke continued by talking about the steam humidification system which is 36 years old and is not properly working. Facilities is working on it, but she noted the building has fiberglass pipes and there is a blocked line on the second floor. The concern is that there is no certainty how to patch or repair the fiberglass pipes if they cut into them. At this time they are able to get the proper humidity to the first floor, but not always the second floor and worst case scenario is that it would back up on the third floor. She is bringing this up at this time because of the re-accreditation that has to be done by 2022 and noted that the Museum will not be re-accredited if the system is not fixed. After the completion of the core gallery project, the steam humidification system will be the biggest priority.

Ballard gave kudos to Lemke on the work she has done on the core gallery project. He noted subcontractors and contractors in general are not always the easiest to work with, but Lemke has handled all parts of the project with charm.

Action Items

16. Park Mgmt. – Discussion Re: Rename of Brown County's Suamico Boat Landing to honor Neil L. La Fave.

Assistant Park Director Matt Kriese introduced Neil La Fave's daughter, Nicky De Greef, 3982 Willow Way, Suamico, WI and family friend Kelly Malchow, 2342 Longtail Beach Road, Suamico, WI to the Committee. Kriese informed Neil La Fave was working at Sensiba Wildlife Area which is adjacent to the Suamico Boat Launch in 1971 and his life was unfortunately taken. This is part of the history of Suamico and unfortunately sometimes gets forgotten. There is an engraved rock monument at Sensiba in memory of Mr. La Fave and the idea of renaming the boat launch that Brown County operates on the Suamico River in honor of Mr. La Fave has been brought up. The family has done a lot of work on this and Nicky provided a number of signatures in support of this, copies of which are attached.

Kriese said the Parks Department has met with the family and fully supports this initiative and provided a handout, a copy of which is attached, which is the preferred look of the sign that would be placed if the Committee and County Board approves a resolution to make this change. Kriese added that there is a cost associated with renaming or changing a name and the anticipated cost for this would be the cost of the sign which is estimated to be about $2,100 and he is proud to say that the Brown County Sheriff's Benevolent and Green Bay Police Benevolent as well as the Wisconsin Warden's Association have stepped forward to donate funds to cover the cost of the sign. There would also administrative work that would happen next year that would be done by Park staff.

Motion made by Supervisor Ballard, seconded by Supervisor Suennen to direct Corporation Counsel to draft a Resolution changing the name of the Suamico Boat Launch to honor Neil L. La Fave. Vote taken.
MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

17. Park Mgmt. – Discussion and Review Re: Barkhausen's restroom/classroom addition.

Kriese provided a handout, a copy of which is attached, which outlines the proposed restroom addition. The budget for the project is roughly $330,000 and the addition is about 700 – 800 square feet. The current restrooms at Barkhausen are not ADA accessible and they are quite small. The number one complaint they hear from people who come out for environmental education is the restrooms. It is hard to get large groups of children through the restroom and hand washing process during the time allotted for their lunch. The addition will solve some of these problems with the proposed half-moon sink which will allow up to six children to be washing their hands at the same time. A family restroom will also be included in the project. In addition, a small kitchenette will be added for storage of lunches and will also provide some additional facilities for room rentals which will provide a minor revenue increase as well. Kriese said Purchasing is putting this out for bid in January. There is not a set timeline for construction, but the money for the project is available in 2020.

No action taken.

18. Park Mgmt. – Resolution to Approve State Trail Connector Easement.

Motion made by Supervisor Ballard, seconded by Supervisor Suennen to to approve. Vote taken. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

19. Park Mgmt. – Resolution to Approve Electrical Line Easement Regarding the Fox River State Trail.

Motion made by Supervisor Suennen, seconded by Supervisor Ballard to approve. Vote taken. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

20. Budget Adjustment Request (19-098): Any increase in expenses with an offsetting increase in revenue.

This budget adjustment is in relation to revenues exceeding expectations within the camping account(s). These revenues will be utilized within the Outlay account to purchase a replacement truck ($25,000) and the Bay Shore Outlay account to purchase a firewood locker for wood sales ($9,500). The replacement vehicle will replace a 2007 Ford Ranger (with over 110,000 miles) that was in a single vehicle accident and is totaled. The firewood locker will replace a rental unit the department had on site throughout 2019 and offered firewood sales in the absence of staff.

Motion made by Supervisor Ballard, seconded by Supervisor Suennen to approve. Vote taken. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

Other

21. Such other matters as authorized by law. None.

22. Adjourn.

Motion made by Supervisor Ballard, seconded by Supervisor Suennen to adjourn at 5:36 pm. Vote taken. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

Bay Shore County Park Boat Landing Damage

A combination of severe winds and record high water levels created a strong seiche in the lower bay causing water levels to rise on or around Nov 30, 2019. These high water levels and large waves caused damage to the north edge of the parking lot (~ 25 feet from the seawall into the parking lot). The asphalt will be repaired in spring and possibly additional riprap brought in to protect the parking lot from future storm events. The repair estimates are not yet complete.

Library Director Report
December 2019

- All BCL locations offer one-on-one tech tutoring for customers. Individuals are able to schedule 30 minute sessions with library tech tutors to get support with personal technology devices, such as computers, tablets, smartphones, etc., or receive assistance using the library catalog, databases, or downloadable materials. This is a very popular library service, particularly following the winter holiday season, when many library customers require assistance using new devices they received as gifts.
- With winter weather now upon us, our libraries play important roles as informal community warming centers. BCL's public areas offer community members safe, comfortable, welcoming spaces. Two of our locations even feature fireplaces for cozy-seeking customers! The library's warm, friendly spaces are enjoyed by all library customers, including seniors, individuals experiencing homelessness, as well as families in need of indoor winter outings for children and youth. During each BCL location's hours of operations, there is no limit on the amount of time a person can spend at the library, as long as that person is compliant with BCL policies.
- Through the library's website, the BCL now offers Quipu, an online card application process (<https://www.browncountylibrary.org/apply-for-a-library-card/>). Quipu offers significant improvements over the previous process and should result in increased efficiency and staff time savings. Quipu automates many aspects of the application process, including out-of-county coding, authorization for holds pick-up, and even signing up for our BCL online newsletter.
- Public library best practices include a regular inventory of library materials and collections. These inventories help maintain the integrity of the library's catalog and ensure that library customers are able to find materials successfully. These inventories, while extremely beneficial, can be large projects, and it is not uncommon for libraries to defer inventories when there is not adequate staffing or volunteer support to conduct them. As it has been a number of years since the BCL has conducted a collection inventory, BCL Administration will be developing procedures and schedules for regular collection inventories that will begin in 2020.
- Library staff is exploring with Brown County partners at UW-Extension and the County Jail how to provide incarcerated parents and their children with literacy engagement opportunities. A successful model used in other WI counties offers promising possibilities.
